Property Description

Welcome to the highest point of luxury in Jacó, it's literally the top two floors of the tallest building. The quality, size and views of this Penthouse are peerless. Just a little over an hour from the International Airport, in San Jose, between 2 avowed national parks, Carara and Manuel Antonio, minutes away from a world class golf course and a marina at Los Sueños, the best surf at Playa Hermosa and of course exquisite local and international cuisine. This is the place to be. Upon entrance you're greeted with an alluring view composed of the spiral staircase, the expansive living room and two-story high windows gazing upon the Pacific Ocean. There's a welcoming feeling of openness stretching from the high end kitchen all the way to the media room. You can access the wrap-around terrace from any point on the first floor, which lets you admire the entirety of the beach, from north to south, the mountains and most of Jacó, you can even see the rain coming from the ocean a mile away, with a view of about 230°.
