Property Description

Dominical Town is nestled next to the Baru River to the North, Jungle covered mountains to the East, a Rock point to the South and the gorgeous Pacific Ocean to the West. This property is rectangle shaped with the majority of the property on the public road with the beach on the other side. If you want a beach front property it does not get any closer than this. This property has multiple uses for your liking commercial and/or residential. If you are interested in building a beach front hotel, retreat, or home this is without a doubt the best beach front property left in Dominical Town. With limited land the quaint little surf town of Dominical is slowly getting a face lift with new cement pavers currently being put through town, full time lifeguards, organic grocery store, police station, a school, ATM, restaurants, bars, yoga studios, surf shops, bus stops, and a beach you can walk on for days.
