Perched at an elevation of 1,800-feet upon the front row of the Escaleras Ridge in the much sought after community of Costa Verde Estates, this 5.88-acre property will absolutely “Wow!” you with its view… This beautiful property boasts both stellar sunset views out over the Pacific Ocean and amazing views over the canopy of the adjacent 350-acre conservation area, and has a creek running alongside the property with beautiful waterfalls which provide amazing white noise elements in sync with the natural symphony of the surrounding rainforest. This 3,500 sq/ft tropical contemporary designed home will boast four ample ocean view master suites, the biggest of which includes a large terrace and a retractable corner wall over the dramatic top floor corner view of the big blue Pacific and the rainforest-covered mountainside. All are well designed to allow for complete privacy for four adult couples, and the first floor master suite will provide easy access for differently-abled individuals.
