Property Description

This is an amazing opportunity to own a beautiful BnB tucked into the jungles of Costa Rica but a short drive to many empty beaches. This 6 acre property is located at the very end of it's road and is surrounded by nature. It is aprox 5 min from the town of Hatillo, and 10 min to the town of Dominical and several beaches. The owner has been very casual about running it as a business but with the 2 rooms for rent in the main building and the seperate rental cabin there is plenty of potential for profit. From the rentals that there have been, people have been very happy which can be shown by the excellent review received online from past guests. The main building has the owner's house upstairs. It consists of a gourmet kitchen with exotic hardwood cabinets, living room, and screened in veranda with a large suspended dining table and a second living room. The ocean views from this floor are spectacular.
