Property Description

Incredible white sand beaches with crystal clear water with spectacular snorkeling and much more surround this tropical paradise located in San Juanillo. This beautiful jungle property has multiple hilltop ocean views with easy access both from the main road as well as borders the community and local soccer field in the center of town. A newly built caretaker's home is located at the main entrance to the property from the center of town. There are 2 well sites being permitted for new ownership to be transferred with the deed. Power is located along the main road bordering this expansive property. An easy to drive road system has been cut making it quick and simple to drive the entire property. The coastal section of this property is absolutely beautiful bordering one of the most private and captivating beaches in the area.
