Property Description

This beautiful home sits in the mountains overlooking the Whales Tail and Uvita. You enter a stone arched gate and up the paver driveway to the house. Welcoming you is a view that is incredible. The house has been well maintained and defies you to find any blemishes at all, throughout has teak wood ceilings and stairways and so much room for you and your guests. A large well appointed kitchen with a large dining room that opens on to the landscaped yard and the infinity pool gives you the breathtaking views and adjoining Ranchito for enjoying the sunsets. This property includes a spacious and well done cabina for your guests or for a rental. A full time caretaker resides on the property behind the guest house. His work shows as you tour the property with nothing out of place or needing attention. There is an extra lot with the same view adjacent to the property available should you want the extra room or have friends that would like to enjoy the beauty with you and build their own house.
