Property Description

Manuel Antonio's premier address for condo living belongs to this fabulous newly constructed condominium. Perched high on a hill with expansive views of the Pacific Ocean and Manuel Antonio National Park, you enter a world reserved for those expecting the best of the best. The lovely entrance opens to a large living room and dining room combination with a gourmet kitchen to create an immediate sense of a free flowing entertainment center. To say that the finishes are first-class would be an understatement. The warm rich colors of the walls, the Brazilian granite, the Italian porcelain floors, elegant ceiling fans, stained glass windows and vaulted ceilings. No detail or expense has been spared in designing and building truly one of the most magnificent residences in Costa Rica. Each condo has central air conditioning and is pre-wired for cable and high speed internet. The bathrooms are, how can I put this...simply amazing.
