Property Description

This is a large lot of 4.4 acres with well-constructed horse stables. The lot also consists of an upper building site with views of the surrounding mountains and valley below. The specific area of Perez Zeledon where it is located is known Quizarra. This area has become a popular one with expats and developers. Nearby in Santa Elena is where the new Rise Costa Rica development will be located. And just over in Santa Teresa de Cajon is the 5-star Alta Gracia resort, recently named as the number 1 resort in Central America. The climate is also a major factor in that year-round you will experience temperate 70 degree weather during the day and nights that cool down enough to make a comforting fire-place alluring. San Isidro and the canton of Perez Zeledon is one of the fastest growing in Central America. Currently there are plans for a major airport expansion in the area. This gateway to Costa Rica's pristine "southern zone" is where to invest in 2017 and beyond! Call Scott for more details at 866-284-2832, or email him at s.
