Property Description

Are you looking to earn rental income while living in a spectacular beachside paradise? This home features two separate, one-bedroom rental suites on the first floor alone, with an office that could be converted into another bedroom. The second story is a complete, comfortable home for a family of four or five, wrapped with terraces and adorned with balconies. It is located exactly one-mile from a gorgeous beach, walking or driving distance. It would be the perfect place to retire in comfort, or its three guest bedrooms with in-suite bathrooms can be used as rentals while a family lives privately upstairs. With spacious, manicured grounds, a beautiful pool and a covered barbecue area, a serious investor could add more rental units and create a beautiful B&B. The home was built in 2011 and is in perfect condition. The property measures 1.25 acres, though the owner is willing to negotiate with buyers to include a second, 1.
