Property Description

If you are looking for a great home in the mountains overlooking the wonderful city of San Isidro de El General, you will want to see this one. The home is located in the barrio of Quebradas, which is one of the most popular for expats due to its quaint and peaceful nature, beautiful river, and convenient proximity to the city. Quebradas sits at an altitude that is in that "Goldilocks Zone" of being not too hot and not too cold...it's just right. As a bonus, the road through Quebradas was recently paved, which makes it all the more convenient for residents of this wonderful mountain pueblo. The home features 3 bedrooms, all with ensuite bathrooms. There is a large living area with kitchen leading to an outside deck overlooking the river below. There are stairs to a loft that could be used as an office or exercise area and this leads to a large outside upper-deck. The living area boasts vaulted ceilings with fans.
