Property Description

Nature Lovers look no further. 90 Acres! This property is one of a kind, and some lucky person will have the pleasure of enjoying all of its beauty! The 90 acre estate is located in the hills above Tres Rios, approximately 15 minutes from the paved coastal highway. The entire property is covered in thick jungle with mountains everywhere and amazing ocean views including: the Osa Peninsula, Cano island, the Terraba River, the largest mangrove in Central America and many river mouths! There are two gated entrances into the property. The lower entrance is a long private driveway that brings you to a very large building area. This has an old farm house, simple pool and a very beautiful two story wooden cabin with upgrades. Just past this is a ridge where a few more cabins could be built. The second gated entry leads to the main house. It is a well built 2 bed, 2 bath home with very nice pool.
