Property Description

Villa Necochea is one of the original villas in the Escaleras/Dominica area. Designed originally as a B&B or small boutique hotel, it is now being offered as a luxury vacation villa due to numerous requests from previous guests. Its spacious design and ability to host a large group comfortably with all the amenities of your own home away from home makes a perfect place for family and office reunions, small weddings or enjoying a vacation with your favorite people. Villa Necochea is located on the pacific coast of Costa Rica, just south of Dominical, nestled in the Escaleras Mountains. The 1000 ft. above sea level elevation allows for its cooler temperatures with dramatic ocean and rainforest views. Dominated by the rainforest of Escaleras and surrounded by two year-round streams. You can sleep and wake to the sounds of the jungle. The howler and capuchin monkeys, coati mundi, sloths and extensive variety of birds, toucans, trogons, Mott Motts, parrots, tanagers (too many to list) makes it a haven for bird and wildlife enthusiasts.
