Property Description

Established furniture business offering fine imported Balinese furniture and decorations. The building is a large two story showroom/warehouse/business office with room for expansion. The business includes all records and the well stocked existing inventory! The building is set on a 1,594 m2 lot offering room for expansion! The business is being sold, without a premium, at the land value + improvements + the cost of the inventory! This is a great opportunity for anyone with retail experience looking for a deal! Currently, the Waldorf School is constructing their new campus in back of Tropical House Imports.. This increased exposure represents huge potential benefits to the owner of any business operating from this location! importat business
