Property Description

Priced to Sell! Boutique River front lodge within 20 minutes of Quepos and Manuel Antonio located in up in the Savegre River Valley. Entering the farm, you will encounter 5 newly constructed cabins situated above the banks of the river, driving in to the depths of the farm, you pass through various plantations of organic varieties of fruit trees to include: mangos, mamonchinos, mangosteins, and a variety of citrus trees. A network of internal roads lead to over a dozen dramatic ocean and mountain view home sites. A year round river fronts the western boundary with multiple cascades and pools. Amazing parcel of land with much infrastructure in place and ripe for the avid developer seeking to do a project, whether it be commercial or residential or combination of both. There is also a 11 platform zipline operation currently active in operation. This company has an agreement with the current owner, and not part of the sale other than income generated from lease of the land.
