Property Description

This amazing home is designed and built with high quality construction materials and luxury finishes. It is for sure full of elegance. It also has panoramic views to the mountains. This 2 level home offers a beautiful courtyard style entrance that separates the garage, private office and main house. It offers various large light-filled living and dining rooms leading to the backyard or covered terrace designed for year round outdoor living. The spacious backyard has very attractive tropical landscaping, automized irrigation system and illumination. The house has its own heated pool in the garden in front of the terrace. The large open island kitchen has plenty of wooden cabinetry and granite countertops. The master bedroom is conveniently located on the first floor and offers its own seating area, private balcony, and large walk-in closet next to the very comfortable master bathroom with Jacuzzi, separate shower and double vanity with marble countertops.
