Property Description

The monkey trail property is the ideal parcel for all who like to be surrounded by nature. The majority of the land is covered with a spectacular variety of trees, that create a perfect natural canopy that helps to keep the property at a cool temperature during the summertime. From every angle of the land, you get a great view of the creek. It's a fantastic opportunity for a cabin business, all with the view and sound of the creek. The location of the property is ideal with easy access all year long, and in a short drive, you can get to Uvita or Dominical to visit the most famous beaches on the coast for surfing and go for a walk to the whale tale beach.
