Property Description

As beach vicinity real estate becomes more sparse, along comes an opportunity to own this brand new, modern construction 2 bedroom, 2 bath home. Tucked on a dead-end side street, this private home is an easy 5-minute walk to the famous Whale Tail beach. Whether on foot or bicycle, everything you will need is in the vicinity with sodas and restaurants right around the corner. Strategically designed, open space home with modern touches and large comfortable spaces. Big patio doors from both the master bedroom and the main space that lead onto the outside entertainment and pool area. Inside you will find modern and rustic touches starting with Guanacaste, natural edge tables, and countertops to complement the sandstone walls. No expense was spared here on top-quality tiles throughout the premises including the carport and pool area. Large open space kitchen carries over to the comfortable living area and the second private bedroom at the rear of the house.
