Property Description

Located about 450 meters above sea level, Enjoy over 22 acres of pristine Costa Rican mountain nature above the beaches of Playa Linda, 30 minutes from Dominical Beach, Quepos Airport, and the world-renowned Manuel Antonio National Park. With breathtaking unobstructed views of the Pacific Ocean from the top of the mountain and beautiful valley views, this rare property borders two seasonal streams and has an access road all the way to the top ocean view building site, at the very end of your private road. A copy of the site survey is available upon request. 4x4 is required. Electricity is 2.3 kilometers away so a solar panel could be an option and water has to be taken from the creeks or craft water well.
