Property Description

If you're a remote worker, adventurous individual or couple, or someone looking for an affordable vacation home (especially those of you living in a city with a direct flight to LIR) this home may be the perfect investment for you! This cute beach retreat is centrally located between Tamarindo (10 min drive) and Playa Grande (15-20 min drive), just to name a couple of popular beaches of many in the area. A perfect property for those that don't mind living outside of the tourist area, but still close enough driving distance to amenities. Quiet, local neighborhood, close to shops and restaurants. This turnkey 1-bedroom, 1-bathroom loft-style home offering 637 square feet of living space with great features including a covered, secured utility porch complete with board racks, water tank, washer and dryer and a fully fenced in property for a total of 2032 square feet. Enter through the living room with crown molding and vaulted ceilings.
