Property Description

In Harmony In true tradition with some of the oldest building practices of Indonesia, this real Balinese home is absolutely in harmony in its setting. The builder of the home spent tireless hours organizing the piece by piece and board by board delicate deconstruction of this home far off in Indonesia some years back. He had it carefully packed up and shipped to this magical site that he had specially chosen for the home he fell in love with. It was then rebuilt and modernized a bit into the home it is today. The site, although here in Costa Rica, is located in Pinilla Highlands just minutes from one of Guanacaste's most coveted beaches, Avellanas. It is also only about 20 minutes to Tamarindo and just an hour to the Liberia international Airport. Up in the hills in Pinilla Highlands there is a building community of expats. Each of the parcels is at least 1.25 acres. This site was chose because it was two of those parcels but has the caveat of a lovely ocean view for to die for sunsets along with the fact that the 2.
