Property Description

Built by an artist the attention to detail and light is evident through out. Walk through designer double doors to a wide hallway with cream colored tiles throughout. The living room space opens to an over sized terrace with stunning views of the mountains. The kitchen/dining room has plenty of modern cabinets and fine counter tops. There is a huge island with built in sink ideal for entertaining. Beautiful lighting fixtures add style to the area. The dining area is surrounded by over sized windows that let in the natural light with more lovely views. Down the hall you will find two bedrooms with their own full bath and closet area. On the other side of home there is a third bedroom/office space with a full bath. The master bedroom is spacious with walk in closet and full bath with Jacuzzi and double sink. On the ground floor there is a large family room with sliding glass doors that open up to a tiled terrace and backyard.
