Property Description

Located in the forested hills just 5 minutes outside of central Samara, Casa Rusia stands out with its traditional elegance and windows. The gated driveway leads to the home perched on a hill with nature views - including the ocean from the rooftop. The home boasts a large open concept first floor with kitchen, living, and dining room as well as a half bathroom and private office space. From the first floor, there is access to the basement, currently set up for laundry and storage. Stairs to the second level lead to the spacious master bedroom and bathroom with a covered large private terrace and rooftop access. There are two additional bedrooms with a shared bath and common space on the second floor. An outside shower and storage area for surfboards and other items are great additions to this property.
