Property Description

This property has two floor and two car garages. This beautiful home, located on a quiet cul-de-sac in a secluded private development, overlooks the broad Pacific from an elevated view on the first floor and even more so in the large Master suite located on the second floor. This is the perfect house for entertaining and barbecuing along the pool while the ocean breeze cools the vista. The full kitchen opens into the ocean view living room and two guest bedrooms are off to the side with full baths each. Outside the large 2-car garage rests below a large open plan apartment with outstanding ocean views. To the side of the garden a recently renovated apartment is available for guests or employees. Besides having a fantastic location, there are also a variety of residential options, all with panoramic ocean views, a relaxing pool and in the perfect location, just a few minutes from the Tambor beaches, restaurants and airport.
