Property Description

A relaxing eco-friendly home right in the heart of laid-back Uvita. The two-story home is a homage to its natural surroundings, using natural materials throughout the whole property. Locally sourced wood decorates the exterior of the property and is used through the interior as feature walls or kitchen fixtures. Large windows and sliding doors beckon in the cool breeze and offer opportunities to spy on the tropical wildlife all around you. Listen to the serenades of the local birds as you take a dip in the turquoise pool. There are over 350 species of bird in Uvita, making it a birdwatcher's paradise. Both floors offer identical entertainers kitchens with breakfast bars and stainless steel appliances. The house has three bedrooms overall, and double fridges and pull-down taps make entertaining large groups a breeze. The upstairs floor is set up as a spacious studio flat with an open-plan bedroom and living area.
