Property Description

This exquisite villa offers everything a discerning buyer would be seeking: quality construction, desirable location, handsome finishes, beautiful outdoor living spaces and stunning 180 degree coastal views. The views are truly some of the most dynamic and awe inspiring found anyway on the Pacific Coast. The site lines include rock islands, headlands, bays, river mouths, year-round sunset, whitewater coast line - all with a back drop of steep rain forest mountain side. The main villa itself is a one-level dwelling with an open floor plan, high ceilings, generous outdoor living space and a large semi-shaded pool just fifteen feet off of the living room - all of which showcases the amazing view mentioned above. The villa has two comfortable bedrooms including a master suite with a spa-like bathroom and semi-covered hot tub. The kitchen boasts Wolf appliances, exotic natural stone counter tops and custom hardwood cabinetry.
