When you enter the property as the electric gate slides open you have an open patio for parking two cars. To one side is a nicely maintained front garden with perfectly manicured green grass and palm trees. Enter through the main front door and you come into the spacious living room with a large open kitchen. All of the doors and the entire kitchen as well as several decorative features have been beautifully designed and built with the famous Costa Rican Cedarwood which really gives you this "at home" feel. There is one main bedroom with a walk-in closet and ensuite bathroom and two other bedrooms that share a full bathroom with a shower.
