Property Description

This development property is quite simply the best of the best in Manuel Antonio. After having been held by the same family for the last three generations this exquisite parcel is now offered for sale. The property forms a natural amphitheater surrounding and overlooking a pristine and private cove with a spectacular beach in a natural setting. As a potential development project this offering is second to none. In addition to the spectacular ocean views this property includes key infrastructure to the property's edge including public road, municipal water, telephone and electric service. The current zoning plan allows a generous amount of latitude to build your dream project. The property would lend itself to high end residential and resort development in a dizzying array of possibilities. Ridge top home, condo or resort sites would offer unmatched views and exclusivity set in the heart of this dynamic destination.
