Property Description

This large parcel is south of Ojochal in the mountain community of San Rafael de Cortes. The total area is 32 hectares, or approximately 80 acres. The access is off the Costanera Sur about 20 minutes. Nearby is the new regional hospital at Ciudad Cortes, the regional airport at Palmar Sur, a golf course at San Buenas, and is within easy driving distance to the beaches at Playas Tortuga, Pinuela, Ventanas and Ballena. The property is at a cool elevation of 700 meters (2,300 feet). There are 6 ready-to-build ocean-view sites that all have sweeping views of the Diquis delta, the mouths of the rio Grande Terraba and the rio Sierpe, the Osa peninsula and Cano island. Diquis is the indigenous Boruca word for "great river." The parcel has 500 meters of public road frontage. Featured throughout are gravel entrance roads, completed concrete drainage, natural mountain spring water, and electricity from the adjoining public road.
